

“Taking WINGS” with Raveena Tandon

We are happy to announce that Prayatna, a trust supported by us, has initiated an enlightening show, “ Taking WINGS”, to highlight the belief that all Children can fly ,given the right Wings. Schools play a significant role in making this conviction possible in the young ones today whether they are Special or otherwise. Watch them dance with joy and perfection, in pursuit of true confidence building.

This Program is scheduled on Friday, 26th January '15 , from 11 am to 1 pm, at the Bhaidas Auditorium, Vile Parle west. We take this opportunity to honor the leaders and followers of the true Spirit of Inclusive Education. Their contribution in instilling faith in every child and enforcing this powerful policy in their school is commendable. Helping each student explore and find the right confidence building platform to face their life amongst the society cannot be understated. It's a great pleasure to have amongst us, as the Chief Guest Smt. Raveena Tandon. Besides being articulate on Social Concerns , she is passionate about initiating worthy measures to support such causes . Her presence in Films as well as the small screen has been an added delight to the audience and her well wishers.

At this Event Dance, Drama and Magic will create a most innovative platform to satisfy a child's search for expression. School Principals, Counsellors, Special Educators , staff ,students and parents are the invitees.

The Prayatna Trust, initiated by School Principals, Educationists and committed patrons has been launched with the objectives listed below. To support the Under Privileged pupils (adherent) of Prayatna Charitable Trust for the benefit of a virtuous future. To encourage, help and provide Educational support to the teaching Faculty, Students and parents. Also Initiating programs aimed at out-of-the-box approach and with the best resources to generate simple solutions to general concerns within our Society. Concerns such as Education and health care of the weaker section of our society, are the prime Focus detailed at our website prayatnango.org. Our prime focus currently is providing a platform for such students to find their 'wings' .

We invite you to participate in this historic event, with educationists, social activists and especially our well wishers .This is an event which is aimed at equipping adults towards confidence building in our young ones ,be it through dance or Drama. We wish to do our mite for the special children, be they underprivileged or challenged in any way. We hope to open such centers that provide the Training ground for teachers and apt learning platforms for such children. Each of our center will be our sincere 'Prayatna' to work towards this.

On this occasion a souvenir is being released to commemorate the event so that we may translate the above objectives into Action through such Ventures. We humbly request you and urge you to spread this word among other well wishers who support such causes .Details for your participation through our Souvenir are given in the form attached with this circular.

Wishes,Team Prayatna
